

Guidelines for the preparation and submission of applications for the Edna Waddell Scholarship

You must apply for this scholarship using the Universities New Zealand on-line scholarships application system.
Applications must be submitted by 1 September.

These guidelines are intended to help you with your application. If you have any questions that are not answered here you should contact scholarships@universitiesnz.ac.nz.

Before proceeding with your application make sure you have read and understood the regulations and that you are eligible to apply for this scholarship.

General information:

Up to three scholarships are awarded to New Zealand students each year.

Applications, including referees' reports, must be complete in the on-line system by 1 September.

Edna Waddell scholars shall:

- be gaining the entry qualifications for their chosen degree.
- be New Zealand citizens or permanent residents with at least three years proven residence in New Zealand.
- show enthusiasm and some knowledge of technology and engineering, particularly in their chosen field.
- have leadership and creative skills.

In addition, in considering each scholarship application the committee will take into account:

- School academic record, particularly in mathematics.
- Projects.
- Further education, extra mural courses, short courses or similar
- Relevant work experience.
- Creativity and innovative ability shown by the candidate.
- Enthusiasm for working in technology and engineering.

Academic records both at school and beyond will be used by the Scholarship Committee to select a short list of candidates.
