

Foundation programmes offered by non-university providers in New Zealand that have been approved for university entrance purposes

Name of programme	Limitations on approval	Name of provider
Taylors Auckland Foundation Year		Taylors College, Auckland

Recognition of some programmes that were earlier listed lapsed at the end of 2008.

Notes:

1. All New Zealand universities will be prepared to consider applications from students who have completed one of the above programmes to an acceptable standard.
2. While these programmes are designed primarily for international students they may be taken by domestic students who have completed Year 13 at a New Zealand secondary school or who have reached the age of 18.
3. NZVCC recognition of any programme does not guarantee that a university will accept any individual student into a particular programme that may have additional entrance requirements which must also be met.
4. Applications should be for admission ad eundem statum (or with equivalent status) at entrance level. Some universities require payment of a fee for this purpose.
